AMENDED Request for Recusal

In the hearing of July 22, 2019, Judge Hanrahan raised a question about the name of my tribe. The complete, and full name is an Indigenous Choctaw/ Washitaw Muur/ Moor (Moorish American National), an enrolled member of Chata/Choctaw Musgokee Yamassee Nation. Specifically, the judge questioned the word "Chata." "Chata" is the native tongue for "Choctaw" (the colonized word for "Chata"). (Refer to Exhibit A for a copy of the tribal membership enrollment and Exhibits B and C for additional information regarding the legitimacy of my tribal membership).

It should also be mentioned that the only tribes who are listed with the Bureau of Indian Affairs are those tribes who have applied for "gaming" licenses or tribes that are receiving a stipend (funds) from the United States government. The Chata/Choctaw Musgokee Yamassee Nation has chosen not to engage in gaming nor to receive stipends from the United States. We are independent and self-regulating, belonging to other independent and self-regulating tribes forming confederations with each other. Contact information regarding the Tribal Court Officials:

Rule 21 of Federal Criminal Procedure states:

Rule 21. Transfer for Trial

(a) For Prejudice. Upon the defendant's motion, the court must transfer the proceeding against that defendant to another district if the court is satisfied that so great a prejudice against the defendant exists in the transferring district that the defendant cannot obtain a fair and impartial trial there.

(b) For Convenience. Upon the defendant's motion, the court may transfer the proceeding, or one or more counts, against that defendant to another district for the convenience of the parties, any victim, and the witnesses, and in the interest of justice.

(c) Proceedings on Transfer. When the court orders a transfer, the clerk must send to the transferee district the file, or a certified copy, and any bail taken. The prosecution will then continue in the transferee district.

(d) Time to File a Motion to Transfer. A motion to transfer may be made at or before arraignment or at any other time the court or these rules prescribe.

Rule 21(d) states that a motion to transfer can be made at any time, and that is what I have done in Federal Court. Until the Federal Court rules on the Verified Complaint (Case No. 19-C-1006), this court has no jurisdiction. We must all wait for the Federal Court to decide the matter.

ALL CASE LAW MENTIONED WITHIN THIS DOCUMENT IS USED AS PRINCIPLE OF LAW ONLY. ALL STATUTES ARE USED AS PRINCIPLE OF LAW ONLY; IT IS ONLY USED TO SHOW THE INTENT OF THE LEGISLATURE.
